OUR PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Class of 1948:

Your senior year has seen the beginning of a planned expansion which will enable the University to serve the state more effectively. You will see the progress of that expansion year by year.

As citizens of a democratic state, you have benefited by an intellectual freedom denied people under totalitarian regimes. What you are, what you do, what you become are better evidences of the worthwhileness of the University than any words can be. We are content to have you as representatives of the University. The best wishes of the University go with you.

IRVIN STEWART

Eisenhower Day

Before a crowd of five thousand people on a sunny Tuesday, September 20, 1947, in the Mountaineer Stadium, General of the Army Dwight D. Eisenhower addressed the Students and Faculty at a Special Convocation.

As the General addressed the assembly a rigid honor guard of R.O.T.C. Cadets flanked the speakers' stand, while the faculty dressed in their colorful gowns encircled the rostrum. Also at this memorable occasion an Honorary Doctors Degree was conferred upon General Eisenhower.

Student Council

Enjoying a strong post-war revival of student activity, the 1947-48 Student Council successfully executed an expanded program of student-controlled functions. The ten-member group, which is the legislative board for the student body, proved that student government can faithfully and efficiently assume an important role in University administration.

After selecting Mary Nichols to represent the University at the Miss West Virginia contest in a busy summer session, the council opened the fall term with an extensive Freshman Week program. In the usual rush of September business, the council named Gene Bailey to fill the vacated Monticola editorship, and appointed competent personnel to the convocation, publication, and other important committees.

Joe Gurtis was selected as coordinator for the biggest Homecoming Weekend in University history. With more than 30,000 parents, alumni, and other visitors on hand, the Student Council put on the year's most spectacular program. "Mountaineer Day," observed for the first time, followed a week later. Arch Moore, who originated the event, was director. James Skidmore was director of the council's program for the State High School Basketball Tournament. The year's concluding major event was Greater West Virginia Weekend, which set new records both in attendance and activity. Robert Stultz was chairman.

In addition, the council adequately dealt with the problems of seating at Mountaineer Field for football and the Field House for basketball, representation at the Shendendoah Apple Festival, naming the new recreation center "Mountainlair," and electing another Miss West Virginia University. The council also set up a Student Rally Committee to conduct thuses, a 28-member Recreation council to plan all-campus entertainment, and named four members of the Student Center Activiteis Board.

With an eye toward long-range centralization and expansion of authority, a special committee, headed by Herbert Fockler, was established to examine the student constitution for possible revision. On the advice of this group, Gordon Billheimer headed a new board which drafted a constitution calling for sweeping changes in the student government.

Tom Smith was also prominent in the reactivation of the West Virginia Federation of College Students. In the organization's first post-war session in May at the University, Barbara Hoke was selected secretary of the association for 1948-49.

As President Stewart has clearly pointed out, the Student Council of 1947-48 has demonstrated that the student body is able to take an active and ever-increasing part in University functions.

The 1948 Monticola constituted probably the world's greatest collection of inaptitude and inexperience. The staff of the Monticola floundered through the first semester, made innumerable mistakes and managed to compile volumes of misinformation and undesirable facts. By the second semester, those of the staff who didn't flunk out of school were rapidly becoming authorities on all of the intricate phases of photography, engraving, and printing. At the expense of the student body they were also learning to spell and to type. At the time the book went to press the remaining handful of faithfuls had emerged as veritable geniuses.

Heading the '48 staff was Editor Gene W. Bailey and Business Manager Richard P. Jones who soon became convinced that a student's place was in the classroom.

Displaying both patience and versatility, John Batlas, Jr. labored faithfully with the editorial staff and also found time to lend assistance to the photography.

The make-up editors included Doris Walker and Juanita Manning assisted by Simon M. Bailey. Virginia

College events live long in memory but there is an added pleasure in a record. Whether or not this Monticola reflects the West Virginia University campus as it was in the turbulent year of 1948 is not for us to judge. It represents our efforts—May you the reader be well pleased.

The annual campus drive for funds for the World Student Service Fund, the American branch of World Student Relief, an organization devoted to supplying aid to universities, their faculties and student bodies in war-shattered areas of the world, could only be called successful. In ten days, March 2 to March 12, contributions were received from well over half of the members of the student body and faculty, and the money received was certainly a gratifying amount.

This fund will be employed for relief in countries which will allow its administration by World Student Relief Officers, which includes most countries ir Europe and Asia, its field of activity.

The essence of the whole drive was summarized by President Stewart as follows: "The World Student Service Fund affords us a splendid opportunity to help our fellow teachers and their students in other lands, on the basis of educational needs only, without regard to nationality, religion, or race."

This year marked the 75th Anniversary of the founding of the first student Y. W. C. A. at Illinois State Normal University, Normal, Illinois in 1873. On our own campus, this was our 41st year of service and leadership.

During the year, our representatives attended the Area and Regional conferences of the Student Christian Movement in which we are participating members along with students throughout the country. Our members find fellowship with students throughout the world in their membership in the World Students Christian Federation.

Delta Sigma Theta is a national religious fraternity for men of Methodist preference in colleges and universities. It is an organization of men who appreciate the need for a closer Christian fellowship and believe also that a fraternal organization of young men can do much to stimulate the development of high moral standards of college men.

Mu Chapter at West Virginia was organized in 1938 and has remained active since, even during war years.

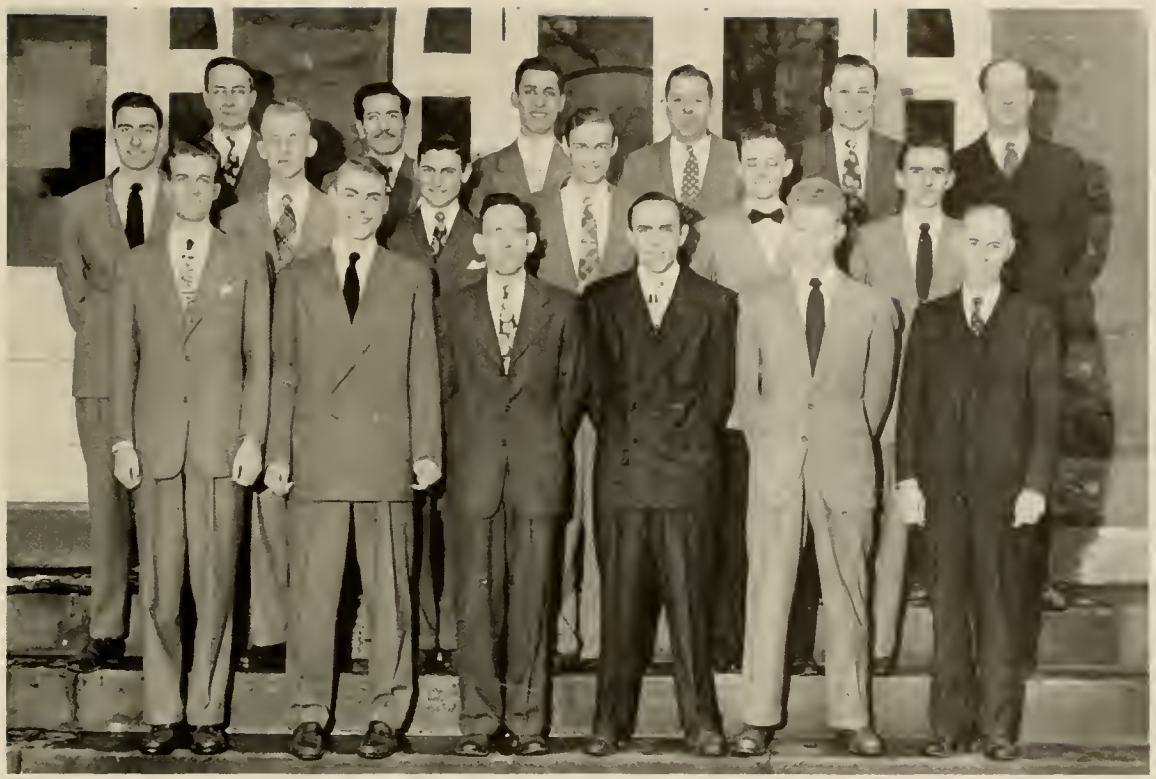
The group has charge of various religious programs in addition to social activities.

Tau Beta Pi

Tau Beta Pi was founded at Lehigh University in 1885. It is the oldest of the honorary engineering societies. West Virginia Alpha chapter was installed in 1922 through the petition of the local Theta Psi.

The purpose of the organization is "to mark in a fitting manner those who have conferred honor upon their Alma Mater by distinguished scholarship as undergraduates or by their attainment as alumni."

Tau Beta Pi is the only honorary engineering society at West Virginia University to whose membership all male engineering students as eligible.



Pi Tau Sigma

Pi Tau Sigma, national honorary mechanical engineering fraternity, was founded at the University of Illinois in 1915. West Virginia's Pi Gamma chapter was installed March 31, 1942.

The purposes of this fraternity are to foster the high ideals of the mechanical engineering profession, to stimulate interest in departmental activities, and to promote the welfare of its members.

National conventions are held each year.

American Institute of Electrical Engineering

The object of this organization, composed of junior and senior electrical engineering students, is to enable students to present, during the entire year, four speeches of a technical nature.

The group is a student branch of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers of which the students may become members after they have obtained their bachelor of science degree.

The student branch at West Virginia was one of the first such student branches that was organized by the parent Institute. It was designated for the purpose of ushering into the parent organization student electrical engineers upon their graduation.

Sigma Gamma Epsilon

Upsilon chapter of Sigma Gamma Epsilon was established at West Virginia University in 1927. The fraternity has for its objects the social, scholastic, and scientific advancement of its members, the extension of the relations of friendships and assistance between the Universities and scientific schools with recognized standing in the United States and Canada, and the upbuilding of a national college society devoted to the advancement of geology, mining, metallurgy, and ceramics.

Men's Glee Club

The forty members of the University Men's Glee Club led by director Frank Cuthbert, and Prof. Bernard R. McGregor, visited four northern West Virginia schools. The group were as a part "Mountaineer Week" activities and were received with much warmth and praise.

As a part of the "Grater West Virginia Weekend" the Men's Glee Club gave their annual spring concert. Among their selections were "Hungarian Rhapsody" No. 12 by Liszt and "The Hussors" by Muller. This May 5, performance was of upmost success in which, according to the Morgantown Post; "The evening's performance again showed that the Music School of the University has much to offer in bringing the State University closer to the people of West Virginia."

Women's Glee Club

A Widely varied and interesting program was presented by the University Women's Glee Club in the annual spring concert under the direction of Helen Rose Holland. Throughout the performance, purity of tone quality and enunciation were outstanding.

Under the able direction of Prof. H. R. Holland, the lyric contata "The Blessed Damosel" by DeBussy was featured and the solo parts sung by Betty Kramer Heeter and Margaret Hampton Hylton, members of the faculty.

Community Mixed Chorus

The University Mixed Chorus on December 18th, 1947 presented the annual "Messiah," Handel's famous oratoria. Miss Lucille Bauch appeared as the saprano Soloist, Prof. Helen Rose Holland, Mezzo-saprano; John Evans, baritone; Howard Price, tenor; Mrs. Mary Elizabeth McGregor, pianist; and Prof. Clyde English, organist.

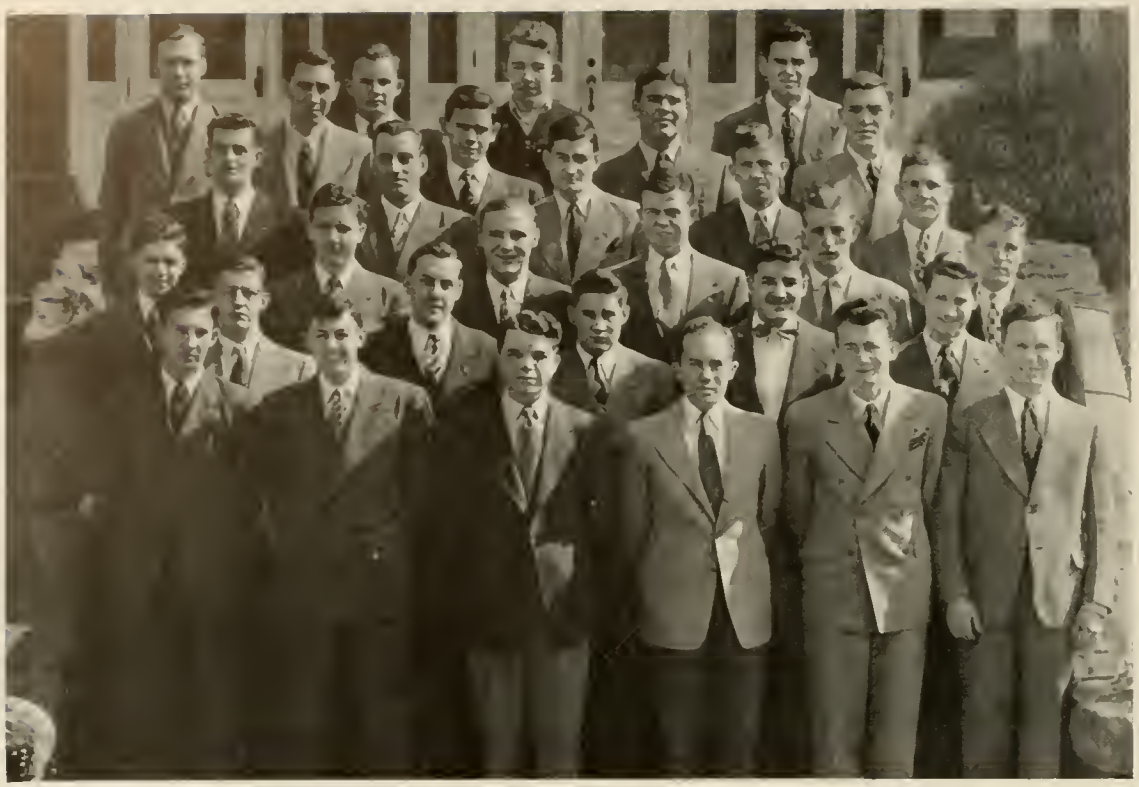
On May 19th with a full house at Reynolds Hall the University Mixed Chorus performed excerpts from Haydin's "The Seasons." Director Frank Cuthbert put his student, faculty, and townspeople musicians through a creditable performance.

Scabbard and Blade

Scabbard and Blade, national honorary society of cadet officers, is located at universities and colleges with departments of military science and tactics. The subordinate organizations are called companies.

"C" Co. 2nd Regiment was founded at West Virginia University in 1916.

Associate members are: Colonel Edward P. Lukert; Captain K. B. Blaney; Captain G. Norrie, ,Jr.; Andrew Reaves; Andrew Clark; John Stratton.



Agricultural Club

The Agricultural Club, potentially, is one of the largest organizations on the campus. Its membership is open to any agriculture student upon the payment of annual dues. The Ag Club was founded in 1933 in order to stimulate social activities in the College of Agriculture; however, it sponsors activities which are of educational value. The Mountaineer Egg and Baby Chick show has become an annual affair.

The zenith of the Club's activities was the "Ag-Mix" which included a barbacue and a square dance. Participation in the "All Ag Picnic" attended by the students in Home Economics, Forestry, and Agriculture, usually concludes the program for the year.

Alpha Zeta

The purpose of the Alpha Zeta, agricultural honorary, is the development of the farm, and the farm house through an organization controlled by agricultural students. It is advised by an agricultural faculty and stimulated by the bonds of fraternity around a membership chosen after an earnest agricultural motive.

The fraternity of Alpha Zeta was founded at Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio, by Charles W. Burkett on November 4, 1897. John F. Cunningham and ten other chapter members established the townshend chapter and since that time the fraternity has progressed.

The West Virginia chapter was chartered in 1922 and since that time has been the only honorary fraternity in agriculture on the campus. Consideration is given equally to scholarship, leadership, and character, in considering any candidate for membership.

Fi Batar Cappar was founded at West Virginia University on March 13, 1914, for the purpose of "boosting" the University. The founders adopted as a badge a small leather emblematic of the goal of college life—the sheepskin. It is fastened to the lapel with a small piece of brass from the ancient brazen claf, the meaning of which is one of the secrets of the organization.

Alpha Delta Pi sorority, the first secret organization for women, was founded on May 15, 1851, at Wesleyan Female College at Macon, Georgia, as the Adelphean Society. In 1904 it became a national Greek letter organization and since that time has established a total of 130 alumnae groups.

Alpha Upsilon chapter of Alpha Delta Pi came into being on March 13, 1919 from a local Alpha Theta Zeta.

Azure blue and white are the sorority colors and the flower is the wood violet.

The West Virginia chapter of Alpha Delta Pi has had a successful season pledging thirteen new members making fifty-eight names on the chapter roll. Betty Jean Bell served as president for '47-'48 year.

A few women at Syracuse University founded Alpha Phi fraternity in 1872. These girls had dreamed of an organization, national in scope, and within a month of their founding they had successfully corresponded with women at other universities. In 1907 the organization became international with the installation of the chapter at Toronto.

The fraternity has pioneered in six fields. It was the first women's fraternity to build and occupy a chapter house. This was at Syracuse University in 1896. It set the precedent of the visiting delegate system now used by all national women's fraternities. Alpha Phi called the first inter-sorority convention which later formed the national Pan-hellenic congress. It was the first women's fraternity to have an endowment fund of $50,000 and was also the first to publish a history of its first fifty years. The precedent of a central office was set by Alpha Phi.

The official badge of Alpha Phi is the Greek letter "Phi" with the Greek letter "Alpha" superimposed upon it. The pledge pin is in a silver ivy leaf with the letters Alpha Phi. The colors are bordeaux and silver gray, and the flowers are the lily-of-the-valley and the forget-me-not.

Beta Iota chapter of Alpha Phi was installed at West Virginia University in 1930.

The highlight of the year's activities was the annual Spring Formal.

Alpha Xi Delta Fraternity was founded at Lomabard College in 1893. Iota chapter was the first National sorority to become established on the campus of West Virginia University, and it was granted its charter in 1904. The official colors are double blue and gold, and the official flower is the pink Killarney rose.

Iota chapter of Alpha Xi Delta began its fall season with the pledging of sixteen girls. During Homecoming Ann Watson was elected first attendant to the queen. Joan Swink was elected "Apple Blossom Princess" to represent West Virginia University at the Apple Blossom Festival in Winchester, Va. At the Christmas season the Alpha Xi Delta's had their annual party which was highlighted by a Treasure Hunt and a clever floor show. The traditional rose dance which was preceded by a banquet, was held in April and the main event of the evening was the rose dance at which time each escort was presented with a rose after going through an arbor of roses.

The members of Alpha Xi Delta have distinguished themselves through campus activities. G'enna Zinn and Katie Pugh are members of Li-Toon-Awa. Betty Jo Morris and Martha Pugh are members of Rhododendron of which Martha Pugh was elected president. Martha Haugh is a member of Mortar Board and was elected historian. Joyce Holstein followed Joan Swink as Pan Hellenic Council Secretary.

Officers of Alpha Xi Delta were: Alice Thayer, President; Ann Duval, Vice-President; Ann Rymer, Secretary; and Libby Carr, Treasurer.

Wearers of the Delta Gamma anchor date their founding back to 1874 during the period just following the Civil War when there was a growing need for higher education for women.

From its founding by three women: Eva Webb, Anna Boyd, and Mary Comfort in a Mississippi school known as the Oxford Female Institute, Delta Gamma has grown into a national organization. It stands for the highest ideals and is established only in the colleges having the best scholastic and social standing.

The history of Delta Gamma has been a record of splendid achievement. The sorority was admitted to the National Pan-Hellenic Association in 1902 and has been active since that time.

Delta Gamma did active work during World War I in Belgium and in 1917 retained the Delta Gamma House at Ossendrecht, Holland, a seaside home for destitute and ailing children. The Student Loan Fund of Delta Gamma has aided many worthy students.

Alpha Xi chapter has made a record on the campus of West Virginia University entirely befitting that of the national organization. Established in 1922, the sorority boasts members in such campus honoraries as Phi Beta Kappa, Li-Toon-Awa, A. W. S., Orchesis, and Alpha Epsilon Delta.

The pin of Delta Gamma is a golden anchor with a white shield and cable. The colors are bronze, pink, and blue, and the flower is the cream colored rose.

Delta Tau Delta Fraterntiy was founded at Bethany College, Virginia (now West Virginia) in 1859, and one year later Delta chapter was established at West Virginia University, which at that time was known as Monongalia Academy. Because of the rapid growth of the fraternity, the name of the chapter was changed to Gamma Delta, and was established as such in 1900. Since that time, this chapter has been active in both campus and community life, with the exception of a brief period during World War II.

This year, Gamma Delta started off with the most successful rush week in their history, pledging thirty-two men, which increased the chapter roll to a total of ninety-seven members. Among the members were Tom Smith, President of the Student Body; Don Fleming, President of Alpha Kappa Psi; national business honorary; Dick Jones, Fublicity Director for Greater West Virginia Week-End and Business Manager of this yearbook; plus many others belonging to the several campus organizations.

Delta Tau Delta, for the second straight year, was awarded the Louis D. Corson Scholarship Trophy for having the highest average of all fraternities.

The most outstanding social events of the year were the first annual Carnival Party, the annual Christmas Party and Dance, and the Spring Formal, which was held May I at the Hotel Morgan. At the spring initiation, the chapter was honored with the presence of brother Norman McLeod, past national president of the fraternity.

The Mother's Day Sing was followed by a reception at the Delta Shelter.

Officers for the year included Jack Hawkins, President; Bob Meyers, Vice-President; Charles Straughan, Secretary; and Harold Amos, Treasurer.

The official flower of the fraternity is the Iris, and the fraternity colors are purple, white and gold.

Kappa Alpha order was founded in 1865 during the presidency of Robert E. Lee at what is now Washington and Lee University. The purpose of the society was to preserve the Southern traditions which had been overthrown by the Civil War. Originally Kappa Alpha had been named Phi Kappa Chi, but the founders complied with the request of Phi Kappa Psi and renamed it Kappa Alpha to avoid possible confusion.

Alpha Rho chapter received its charter in 1897 and was one of the first fraternities on the University campus being installed by Dr. W. S. Hamilton.

The rose and the magnolia are the fraternity flowers and the colors are old gold and crimson. The motto of the Order is "Dieu et les Dames" and the social fraternity basis its doctrine and teaching on the idea of the "perfect gentlemen" as exemplified by the immortal Robert E. Lee.

The organization "Virginian," a literary club composed of young men of high scholastc standing, was the first step in the establishing of West Virginia Alpha of Phi Delta Theta fraternity on this campus.

A bond of friendship grew up among the members of the literary society, and in the fall of 1919 Phi Delta Lambda was organized as a local Greek letter fraternity. There were nine charter members. "Phi Delta" was taken from the name of the national organization and "Lambda" added because Phi Delta Lambda was the eleventh fraternity to be recognized on the campus.

Upsilon Chapter of Phi Sigma Delta Fraternity was founded on the West Virginia University campus on May 7, 1927, and has been active ever since. The chapter evolved from Mu Delta Mu, a local fraternity, which came into existence in 1922.

The National Fraternity was founded on November 10, 1909, at Columbia University. The national membership of the fraternity exceeds ten thousand in number. Chapters of the organization are located in nearly two dozen large institutions from coast to coast. The carnation is the official flower and purple and white are the official colors.

The 1947-48 rushing season again was a great success at 665 Spruce Street. Twenty-two new men pledged the organization to make the Chapter's membership nearly fifty strong.

Highlights of the organization's social calendar were its annual pre-season Labor Day Celebration, the Thanksgiving formal and party, and the annual Founders' Day spring formal and celebration. Each affair consisted of a formal dance, dinner banquet, picnic, theme party, and several informal get-togethers. A number of other parties were given throughout the year to add to a very successful social season.

Mu Mu Chapter of Sigma Chi was founded at West Virginia University in 1895 as the youngest member of the Miami Triad at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio.

The West Virginia Chapter of Sigma Chi began its fall activities with a successful rush period with an eventful week of parties, dances, and picnics.

An outstanding social event of the year was an original party with the theme of "Sadie Hawkins Day." The fraternity house was decorated in accordance with scenes from the famous comic strip, "Li'l Abner." The Sigs and their dates were costumed to impersonate the characters of the strip. The famous Miami Triad Spring Formal was another outstanding social event.

The officers for the year were: President, McVey Graham; Vice-President, Paul Hamilton; Secretary, Jack Satterfield; Treasurer, James Jones; Associate Editor, William Wymer; Editor, Jack Satterfield; and Historian, Willis Buck.

The Sigma Chis are active in intramural sports having participants in volleyball, handball, and badminton. James Jones was the outstanding tennis star of the year. Other athletes honored were Fred Schaus and Dave Wilson. Jack Miller proved his ability as a light weight wrestler.

The Sigma Chis have members in the various honoraries among which are Fi Batar Cappar, mock honorary; Il Circolo Italiano, Italian honorary; and Mountain, senior men's honorary.

Gamma Pi chapter of Sigma Nu was established at the University in 1904 and is one of the 103 chapters located in forty-seven states. The fraternity was founded at Virginia Military Institute in 1869 and now has over 50,000 living members.

The rolls of the chapter now list sixty-nine actives and twelve pledges.

Sigma Nu won second place in the all-year athletic competition by winning bowling, horseshoes, and "B" league basketball; placing second place in softball and volleyball; and third in table tennis. Two men were also in the wrestling finals.

Besides winning second place in the Mother's Day sing, the chapter placed in the Christmas sing and was the only fraternity to sing over station WAJR in support of the Friendship Train drive. Sigma Nu was also one of the few asked to sing when WAJR opened their FM facilities.

The debating team placed second in the interfraternity debates. The Homecoming decorations won honorable mention.

The officers of the year were Commander George Switzer, Lt.-Commander Ervin S. Queen, Treasurer Charles Collins, and Recorder Robert Skaggs.

Officers elected for 1948-49 are: Commander Gordon Billheimer, also chairman of the Council of Fraternity Presidents; and Lt.-Commander William Short.

West Virginia Beta Chapter was granted a charter in 1903 and was active on the campus until June of 1943 when it was deactivated for the duration of the war. In September of 1945 the chapter was re-established in the temporary house on College Avenue and grew steadily throughout the year. Starting in September of 1946, thirty actives composed of new members and pre-war members who had returned moved the residence to its permanent location on Willey Street.

In 1901 The Saturday Night Club at the University of Richmond was reorganized as a national fraternity and adopted the name of Sigma Phi Epsilon. Since then over 27,000 members have been included in its 100 active chapters.

The chapter enjoyed a successful fall rush season which raised its total membership to 80 actives and pledges. The fraternity was active in all campus activities—winning first place in the Homecoming decorations and second place in the Christmas Sing. The highlight of the social season for the fraternity was the annual spring formal and banquet held at the Hotel Morgan. Intermission ceremonies included the naming of Miss Mary Ann Burnside as the Sweetheart of Sigma Phi Epsilon.

During the year a very successful district convention was held here at the local chapter. There were eight schools, colleges and Universities, from neighboring states present.

The fraternity officers for the year 1947-48 were: President, Robert Dunning; Vice President, James Locke; Comptroller, Joseph Bysarovich; Secretary, Charles Morelli; Historian, Gene Ash; Pledge Master, Jim Osborne.

At the close of the first World War, some students of West Virginia University banded together to form Tau Delta Theta, a local fraternity. As the years progressed the chapter grew and prospered until it was one of the strongest fraternities on the campus. After several years of petitioning they were finally admitted to the national circle as Alpha Kappa of Alpha Sigma Phi in October of 1931. Shortly thereafter, however, due to the depression the chapter went inactive.

In the summer of 1946 Alpha Sigma Phi and Alpha Kappa Pi (another national fraternity) merged, putting Alpha Sigma Phi in the top ten of national fraternities. The name of Alpha Sigma Phi was adopted because of the hundred years of illustrous history behind it. In the fall of 1946 a group of former Alpha Kappa Pi's got together and with the aid of alumni of the old chapter reactivated Alpha Kappa chapter. In the fall of 1947 the chapter was firmly established and has been growing steadily ever since.

Alpha Gamma Chapter of Phi Kappa Sigma Fraternity was established at West Virginia University, January 15, 1896, and has been in continuous existence ever since except for a period during the second World War.

The fraternity was founded at the University of Pennsylvania in 1850. It has forty chapters in the United States and Canada, located mainly in state universities with some chapters in older colleges.

The chapter has been honored during the past year by the visit of A. M. Jens, national president of the fraternity. United States Senator Chapman Revercomb, a member of the Washington and Lee Chapter, was guest of honor at a buffet dinner in the chapter house last fall.

Social events were highlighted by the traditional spring formal held in the Marilla Play Center. Decorations were in the fraternity colors of black and gold with small loving cups given as favors. Other outstanding events included the Phi Kappa Pi K A dance given by the pledges, the tea dance for the Alpha Phi Sorority, the reception for our housemother, Mrs. Norman Hampton, a halloween dance, buffet dinner for the alumni at Homecoming and a "comic strip" party where the guests came dressed as some character out of the comics.

Phi Kaps named to honoraries during the year include John Summerfield to Sigma Gamma Epsilon, National Honorary for chemical engineers; Charles Hines, National Educational Honorary; John Ward, Sphinx, and Edward Brown, Scabbard and Blade. Wilson Welker plays on the freshman baseball team and Richard Brindle is Captain of the freshman golf team.

Officers are John Ward, President; Calvin Archer, Treasurer; and Bennie Sims, House Manager.

THE COACHING

Roy M. "Legs" Hawley has been director of athletics since 1938. He is a graduate of West Virginia University, and served as Alumni Secretary from 1934 to 1938. Earlier, he was director of athletics at Marshall College in Huntington from 1926 to 1933. He was quite an athlete in his own right, and is a familiar figure in the West Virginia sports scene.

William F. (Bill) Kern became head football coach at the University in 1940. He is a graduate of the University of Pittsburg where he played football under the famous Jock Sutherland. After graduating, he went to Wyoming as line coach, played some pro ball with the Green Bay Packers, and then returned to Pitt as assistant to Sutherland. In 1937 he took over the helm at Carnegi Tech, where he was named "coach of the year," and took his team to the Sugar Bowl. He served in the Naval Reserve during the war. During the last week of the season, Kern submitted his resignation as head football coach at West Virginia, and it was stated that his successor would be named before the start of spring training.

Lee Patton is enjoying great success as basketball coach at the University. He has taken two teams to the National Invitiation Tournament in New York, and this year's squad gives promise of having the winning habit also. Patton is a native of Texas but graduated from Arizona State College in '27 after winning letters in football, basketball and baseball. He coached for 14 years at Princeton, W. Va. High School, and for one year at Iona Prep School, New Rochelle, N. Y. before coming to the University. He also coaches the Freshmen in football.

Ira Errett Rodgers has been a member of the coaching staff since 1921. In his undergraduate days, Rodger became the only West Virginia University football player ever to be picked for the official All-American team. He was an all-round athlete, and captained the football, basketball and baseball teams, all in the same year. For many seasons he has served on the football coaching staff, and until recently, also coached the baseball teams.

Art Smith, the veteran track coach has been at the University since 1924. He attended Buffalo University and coached at the University of Maine since 1924. He attended Buffalo University and coached at the University of Maine, Michigan State and Iowa State before coming to West Virginia. This fall, he revived cross-country running at the University.

Albert (Whitey) Gwynne has given up his coaching duties to become full-time trainer of athletic teams at the University. He played football for the Mountaineers, and as captain of the '34 wrestling team, he also took over the coaching assignment. Under his direction, the '26 mat squad won all seven matches to become the only unbeaten team in the history of West Virginia wrestling.

Steve Harrick has returned to his position as Mountaineer wrestling coach after an absence of approximately 15 years. After leaving the University staff in 1932, he coached at Point Pleasant High School for one year and then went to West Virginia Tech as head coach and athletic director. In his playing days at West Virginia University, Harrick was a member of the baseball, football and wrestling teams from 1920 through 1924. He will also coach baseball.

Forest B. rane joined the Mountaineer staff as office-ticket manager and director of athletic publicity in '42. A graduate of Fairmont College in '33, he was with the Fairmont newspapers for ten years; then with the Monongahela System until he came here. Crane handles all home game tickets and athletic publicity.

WILLIAM F. "BILL" KERN

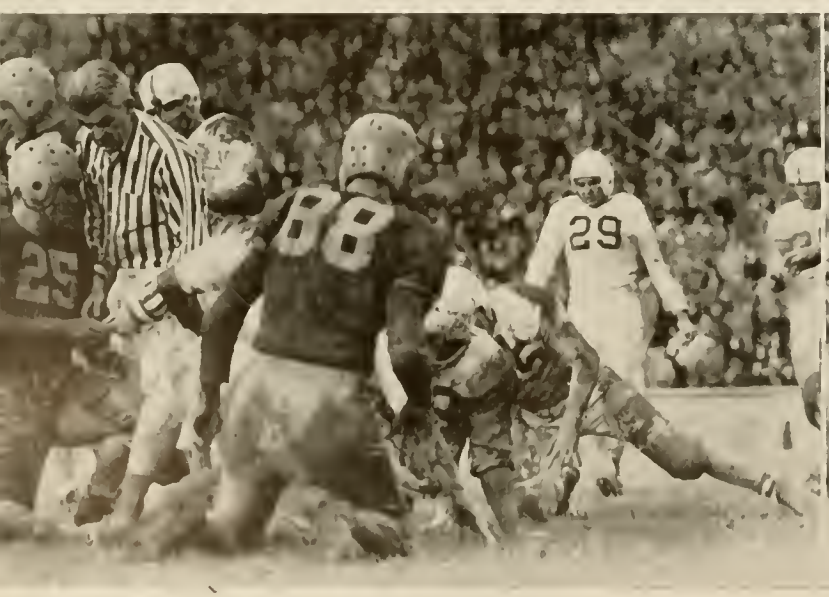
RESUME OF FOOTBALL SEASON

The 1947 Mountaineers gave the fans an interesting and colorful season of football. There was a lot of good material on hand, and Coach Bill Kern and his staff welded it into what was recognized as one of the better teams in the East. The Gold and Blue won six and lost four over a ten game schedule, and rolled up 246 points to 84 for their opponents.

The team looked good both offensively and defensively, and had they won more games, some of the members would have received the national recognition they deserved for their individual play.

This was the final season at the University for Leo Benjamin, Bob Bom, Gene Corum, Charlie Harris, Ed Kulakowski, Fred Morecraft, Chuck Schrader and Chet Spelock. They all played good ball, and their services will be sorely missed next year.

Coach Kern submitted his resignation during the last week of the season, and as a fitting climax to his career at West Virginia University, the team gave him a victory over the Pitt Panthers. The game was played at the Panthers lair in Pittsburgh, and this time, for a change, it was Pitts turn to say, "wait till next year."



It was a good year, but next year should be even better.

West Virginia, 59; Otterbein, 0

The first game of the season was a home appearance against Otterbein. Just a year before, the Mountaineers had had difficulty in downing the lads from Ohio by a 13-7 count, but the story of this year's encounter was considerably different. West Virginia rolled to nine touchdowns with Zinaich, Walthall and Becca each scoring twice and Bumgardner, Cox and Morton once. Clare Wilson place kicked three extra points and Dick Hoffman added two more. The team looked good in all departments of the game, and the local fans left Mountaineer field with a feeling of satisfaction.

West Virginia, 35; Washington and Lee, 6

The teams met in their traditional battle on Charleston's Laidley Field. The temperature was hovering around 85 degrees, and as far as Mountaineer fans were concerned, the team was as hot as the weather. At the intermission, the Gold and Blue had only a meager 7-0 lead, by virtue of a 53-yard run by Tommy Keane, but in the second half the score mounted to a much wider margin. A pass from Keane to Huntz produced touchdown number two, and another pass, Walthall to Richmond, was good for number three. Harris recovered a fumble on the W. and L. 13 to set up the next touchdown, with Malyk taking the ball over on a plunge. Then with only fifteen seconds to go, Combs passed to end Frank Reno who went all the way, behind good blocking. West Virginia also made good on all extra point attempts. W. and L. was held to a lone touchdown.

West Virginia, 60; Waynesburg, 7

West Virginia scored nine touchdowns against the Yellow Jackets, and in doing so, gave an impressive demonstration of what could be done with the "T" formation offense. Coach Bill Kern let his reserves see plenty of action and against them, Waynesburg was able to push over one touchdown. Bumgardner, Zinaich, Devonshire, Cox, Schrader, Bonfili, Richmond, Becca and Fought each contributed a touchdown to Mountaineer cause. Dick Hoffman added four extra points by placement and Clare Wilson two.

West Virginia, 40; New York University, 0

The steam roller effect continued against the Voilets in New York City. Keane heaved to Bumgardner who then ran 36 yards for the first score. Walthall went 45 yards for the second. Then Bumgardner went 65 yards in two plays to score the third. After a 44-yard run by Becca and a pass from Combs to Huntz, good to the 5, Malyk crashed over for another. Pass plays Combs to Huntz and Becca to Bonfili set things up for the last touchdown. From the 5, Bonfili went around end to pay dirt. Hoffman converted 4 out of 6 times.

West Virginia, 14; Penn State, 21

This was probably one of the most outstanding games ever played by a Mountaineer eleven. State had the depth and power, and won the game; but they only won it by one touchdown, and the grit and determination displayed by West Virginia, made them a team to be proud of. The Lions scored the first time they had the ball, when after a sustained drive, Rogel went over from the one. West Virginia came right back when two pass interference rulings gave them the ball on the Penn State four yard line. Pete Zinaich went over, and Dick Hoffman came in to kick the extra point which tied the score. Then the Mountaineers went out in front on a pass from Combs to Huntz, good for another touchdown. Hoffman again converted. Penn State tied the count again late in the second period on a plunge by Clarence Gorinski, and the half ended with the score 14-14. In the second half, West Virginia was on the defensive most of the time, and although they made two magnificent goal line stands, Penn State would not be denied. They scored the winning touchdown on a pass from Ellwood Petchel to Wallace Triplett who took the ball on the West Virginia 26 and ran the rest of the way to score. Penn State finished their season unbeaten and untied, and were invited to play in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas, Texas on New Year's Day.

West Virginia, 0; Maryland, 27

The Terrapins handed West Virginia a disheartening defeat, before a homecoming crowd at College Park. It was the first time a Maryland eleven had defeated West Virginia and it was their game all the way. They scored twice in the first and twice in the final periods. Gambino, their great back led the attack with three touchdowns, and Wingate contributed another. Six of the Kernmen suffered injuries, and it was thought at the time that Keane would be out for the remainder of the season.

West Virginia, 6; Kentucky, 15

A record crowd of approximately 26,500 jammed Mountaineer Field to see this one. West Virginia led 11 to 7 in the first downs, and dominated much of the play, but Kentucky came out on the long end of the score. They relied on the kicking of George Blanda to keep the Mountaineers backed up, and played for a break. The break came when they recovered a fumble on the West Virginia 25, and then ran and passed their way to a score. Their second touchdown came on a long run by Jim Howe who wormed his way over the muddy field to cross the goal line standing up. Two more points were added to the Kentucky total by virtue of a blocked punt, which went out through the end zone for an automatic safety. The West Virginia touchdown came as a result of a 50 yard drive. Malyk bulled his way over from the two yard line for the score.

West Virginia, 0; Virginia, 6

This was the homecoming game, and one to be remembered. It was a wet day, and the Mountaineers and Cavaliers struggled in the mud without scoring, until late in the game. Virginia marched from the West Virginia 43 to chalk up the only score of the game. Their star back, Grover Jones did most of the ball carrying in this drive, and finally went over on a line plunge. On the following kick-off West Virginia got going, but time was running out. Tom Keane, who was still suffering from injuries received in the Maryland game, came off the bench to heave some desperation passes. From the 43 he completed one to Jimmy Walthall on the Virginia 25, and Walthall made it to the 18. Two passes failed, and on the next one, what looked like a touchdown toss fell incomplete when Huntz the intended receiver, ran into the goal post. Another pass was incomplete and Virginia took over. However, they fumbled and West Virginia recovered. There was still a chance for the Mountaineers, but two more Keane passes just failed to connect, and the game ended.

West Virginia, 21; Temple, 0

The Gold and Blue ended their losing streak by defeating the Temple Owls, in the last home game of the 1947 season. Phil Slosburg, an outstanding back for the visitors, put on a fine exhibition of all-round play, but West Virginia was in command of the situation all afternoon. Late in the first quarter, Bob Fought intercepted a pass on the Temple 24. From that point Rex Bumgardner carried six straight times, going over from the one-foot line. . In the second period Walt Malyk carried from midfield to the 24, and then took a pass from Tom Keane to go over standing up. The last touchdown was made on a plunge by Malyk. A pass interference had given the Mountaineers the ball on the Temple four, and he went over from that point. Dick Hoffman made good on all three extra point attempts.

West Virginia, 17; Pittsburg, 2

After nineteen long years, the once mighty Panthers were defeated by West Virginia, and it was a cold day in Pittsburgh in more ways than one. Pitt was outclassed but fought hard, even though there was little doubt as to the final outcome of the game. Keane sneaked over from the one yard line for the first touchdown, and Hoffman kicked the extra point. In the second quarter Gene Corum blocked a punt and covered the ball on the Pitt five-yard line. After three running plays lost five yards, Hoffman came in and booted a field goal. The Mountaineers had to score their last touchdown twice. A touchdown pass from Keane to Richmond was called back because of a backfield in motion penalty, but on the next play Keane again threw one into the end zone where Smodic deflected the ball into the hands of Bernie Huntz. Hoffman's kick was good for another extra point. Pitt got their two points on the last play of the game when a blocked punt gave them a safety. The West Virginia players carried Coach Bill Kern off the field on their shoulders, the goal posts were torn down, and everyone was happy—that is everyone from West Virginia.

RESUME OF BASKETBALL SEASON

West Virginia University's cagers wound up another brilliant season under the tutelage of Coach Lee Patton. With victory over Pitt, the final game of the season, the Mountaineers could point to seventeen wins in twenty times, with ten of the victories in succession. Finishing the third straight season of home-game sweeps, they counted forty-three successive home wins.

In the first game of the season, West Virginia romped to an easy win over Fairmont State on the Falcon's home floor. It was the Mountaineers' game all the way with the reserves seeing plenty of action. At the end of the game the scoreboard read: West Virginia 80, Fairmont 55.

The second game, against Brigham Young, was a real battle in the first half; but the Mountaineers started clicking in the second half and triumphed with a 68-51 win.

One of the most exciting games of the season came when West Virginia tallied 68 points to North Carolina State's 64. A battle between two of the best teams in the country, it was anybody's game till the final moments of play.

Fairmont's boys held West Virginia to a slim two point lead of 24-22 at the half, but the second portion of the game found the Mountaineers as hot as a ball of fire and the final outcome was a comfortable West Virginia 68, Fairmont 40.

The Washington and Lee game was a com-paritively easy 78 to 35 win, but it was also a costly one. A sprained ankle caused Fred Schaus to be removed from the game, but he looped in 21 points before his accident in the second half.

The Mountaineers' winning streak came to an end at Madison Square Garden, when Manhattan topped our team 58 to 53.

to Buffalo to play Niagara. The final score was Niagara 58, West Virgina 59.

Next Penn State gained a 50-46 verdict over the Pattonmen.

The West Virginia men were back in the win column when they defeated Bethany 54-42, but the score indicated that they were still below par.

It was a surprise when Washington and Jefferson came up with a 52-41 win after the Mountaineers had twice defeated them by large margins the previous season.

Whatever troubled the players in the losing games was absent when the Pattonmen came back with an impressive 88-42 win over Virginia Military Institute.

Next the Mountaineers cancelled their former loss by a good win over Penn State with the score 60-38. Eddie Sterling, playing his second game for the Pattonmen, made an impressive showing in this game.

Another close 38-37 victory came when the West Virginia men played Navy at Annapolis. Schaus suffered a broken finger in this one.

The next game was at Philadelphia where the finishing score read: West Virginia 81, Temple 75.

Back on home ground, the Pattonmen met Washington Jefferson with the intention of making up for the previous loss. They did, and the score was 73-52.

The next three games were pleasant victories with the scores being: West Virginia 81, Geneva

When Bradley Tech, one of the outstanding teams of the nation, came to Morgantown to battle with Patton's crew a record crowd of 7,200 spectators went wild as the Mountaineers downed Bradley with an 85-74 score.

Temple suffered another defeat, 71-61, with Eddie Beach leading the home team with 22 points to his credit.

To finish the season, the Mountaineers tallied 52 points to Pitt's 36. This game marked the last game of their college career for Leland Byrd, Dave Wilson, and Bob Carroll.

An 11-game winning streak put the '48 baseballers into the record book, for they had chalked up the longest skein since the 1919 string of twelve straight. To boot, Harrick and his nine are assured of the best record since the 1928 mark of twelve victories and four setbacks.

Art Donata and Okey Ryan have been the pitching kingpins, and Roy Lester, Joe Bermingham, and Pete Zinaich are leading what amounts to one of the hardest hitting Mountaineer clubs.

TRACK

ARTHUR N. SMITH

The West Virginia University Track Team under the export coaching of Art Smith is definitely coming into its own after a layoff during the war years.

The track team got off to a good start in the 1948 season by rolling up an impressive score of 70-52 over Western Reserve at Cleveland. Going from the North to the South the thin clads next ran across Washington and Lee in Virginia. Although the Gold and Blue won 69-62 it was anybody's meet until the last event. The two teams were about tied with the victory going to the team with the best javelin thrower. Bernie Huntz was called upon to represent W.V.U., and he came through with the winning toss of 179 feet 2 inches to win the event. This made him high point man of the meet with three first places, having won the shot put and the discus. Jack Morton took second place honors with two firsts in the 220 and 440 yard dashes.

The Mountaineers first home meet was with Ohio University on Mother's Day, and for the occasion rolled up a 76½-45½ victory. The next week the thin clad met with their only defeat at the hands of Syracuse and Rutgers. The Mountaineers were outclassed in this meet due to the fact that only six men took the trip. Huntz again led the team with first in the shot put and discus. Bill Pittman took second place honors in both the 100 and 220 yard dashes.

The last track meet of the season was with Temple. During this meet at Morgantown a new field record in the high jump was made by Johnson of Temple. The record now stands at 6 feet 4 ¾ inches. The final score was the Mountaineers 54 5/6, Temple 22 1/6.

At the close of the season three men were invited to represent West Virginia in the I.C. 4-A meet at Harvard. They were Jack Morton, Bill Pittman, and Bernie Huntz.

BIG BUSINESS!
WORDS TO PRIZE, NOT DESPISE!

Great economic delusions and superstitions hover around those oft-despised words: "Big Business." Isn't it most peculiar that thousands of intelligent users of automobile, refrigerator, radio, telephone, gas, electricity and a thousand other incidentals of American life apparently never stop to think that Big Business is responsible for great economical advances in our standard of living, whose benefits are now enjoyed in the humblest home but were not available in palaces of old. Without Big Business and its productive enterprise, where would we find jobs, wages, taxes, national budgets, security?

A good way to measure the growth of a man and of an industry is by accomplishment. We hope our growth inspires your confidence and merits your continuing friendship.
